

PRIDE

Classroom Rules and Expectations for 7th grade Social Studies Mr. Anderson

Pride = the happy, satisfied feeling somebody experiences when having or achieving something special that other people admire.

Prepare to Learn

- Bring needed material to class – student planner, writing utensil, binder, textbook, etc...
- Be in your seat ready for class to begin at the start of class. Sharpen your pencil at this time.
- Look to the instructions on the white board such as the agenda for class, Daily Question or homework assignment. Write down any important information in your planner!

Respect Others

- Respect each others physical space and property.
- Respect each others ideas, learning styles and differences. NO PUT DOWNS ARE ALLOWED!
- Show Mr. Anderson respect as a teacher and he will show you the same as a student.
- Failure to follow these rules could result in the following consequences: verbal warnings, lunch and/or after-school detentions, phone calls to parents, and conferences with Mr. Anderson and/or principals and parents.

Ideas are Welcome

- Allow your classmates an opportunity to speak. Raise your hand if you would like to participate.
- The classroom must be a place where students feel safe to express themselves and listen to the perspectives of their classmates and teachers.

Do Your Work

- Assignments and projects must be completed on time. Please make every effort to do so.
- Late assignments will be worth no more than 80% of total points for the assignment.
- Late projects will be downgraded one letter grade per day late.
- Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Students caught cheating on assignments will receive a 0% for that assignment and parents will be notified.

Everyone Succeeds

- If the above rules are followed, we will have a great year as a class and you will be a success as a student! Have pride in yourself as a student and in our school!

“If we did the things we are capable of, we would astound ourselves.”
